

EASTERN STAR HOME AND STAR COURT SUITE NEWS

The Eastern Star Home and Star Court Suites held a doll show Friday in our Nursing Home Dining Room. The residents were asked to share a doll memory or bring a special doll to show. Some of our staff Amy Turner, Lisa Haigh, Kayla Haigh, Felicia Ethridge and Crystal Harford along with family members Jill Alkire, Darla Knox, and Sheryl Kloss brought in their favorites. We had a large variety of dolls ranging back a hundred years. It was a great afternoon of reminiscing of our good ole doll days.

This week Larry Eldeen with Al Felchle were our Men's Table Time guests and next week Randy and Ed Haigh will join us. Nice to have the guys take a break from the cold to enjoy a cup of coffee and some conversation. The Gilbert Gals treated us to double batch of rosettes during cooking class. We couldn't stop at just one, we had two or three.

Toni Evans called bingo and lead afternoon exercises Saturday. For movie night we watched "The Little Princess". Sunday Worship Service was lead by Tammy Toepke Floyd in our chapel. Vonnie Woodring had a birthday Monday and Martin Luther King Jr. Day was celebrated with trivia. Join us today at 2:30pm for the reading of the Redfield Press and a hymn sing at 3pm. Thursday we will be testing our skills with Wheel of Fortune. On Friday, January 25th at 3pm we will be celebrating LueAnn Keating's Birthday with hot fudge brownie sundaes.

Stop in at the Eastern Star Home anytime for a visit, we'd love to have you come see what we are up to.
