

EASTERN STAR HOME AND STAR COURT SUITE NEWS

The temperature may be chilly out but we try to keep busy inside the walls of the Eastern Star Home where it's nice and cozy. Monday we recognized Martin Luther King Day with facts and trivia. Our favorite game of bingo was played Tuesday to celebrate Vonnie Woodring's Birthday with her favorite candy bar "Salted Nut Roll" as the prizes. Today will fill up starting early with Father Tom Anderson leading mass in the chapel at 9:30am, United Methodist Women Circle at 9:30am in the Court C dining room, the reading of the Redfield Press at 2:30pm and a double birthday at 3pm in the nursing home dining room. Carol Ragatz's birthday is today she will share it with Mary Goodwin who's birthday in a few days. Mary's family came early for a visit and we wanted them to be able to celebrate this special 99th birthday with their mother. Tonight Marsha Hofer will be the bingo caller for our bingo night.

We will be holding a Souper Celebration on Thursday with a potluck soup contest for dinner and an afternoon of Campbell Soup fun facts. Friday we will play a mind working game of Wheel of Fortune and Saturday we will enjoy an afternoon of bingo. Our movie night will be "Bill Crosby Himself" at 7:15pm. Sunday Worship will be lead by Pastor Adrian Timmons at 3:15pm.

The next week ahead we will have LueAnn Keating's birthday party on Monday at 3pm. Tuesday our mens table time guests will be Randy and Ed Haigh at 2:30pm followed by bingo at 3pm.

Stop in for a cup of hot chocolate, coffee or cappuccino and a fresh baked cookie any time. Our residents enjoy having visitors, just be mindful of any cold or flu like symptoms you may have. Follow us on facebook for our Souper Cook winners!!
