

EASTERN STAR HOME AND STAR COURT SUITE NEWS

Music is so therapeutic for our residents and always draws a big crowd. Lyn Flint and Marsha Hofer lead a hymn sing Wednesday afternoon. It was so enjoyable to hear the requested hymns they grew up singing. Today we have Penny Ihnen and Onilee Siebrecht sharing their amazing musical talent with us at 3pm. Everyone is invited to stop in and join us for a cookie, coffee and music.

As our minds were thinking of winter words Marsha Hofer lead the game Wheel of Fortune on Thursday afternoon. The residents received a sucker after guessing the correct word or phrase. LueAnn Keating along with family and friends celebrated her 85th Birthday with Hot Fudge Brownie Sundaes on Thursday. On Saturday Lisa Haigh called bingo and lead exercises, and for movie night we watched "How Great Thou Art".

Paula Ames was our art teacher for Wine 'n Canvas. She had our creative juices flowing as she lead us in a Valentine's theme painting. Men's Table Time guests were Randy and Ed Haigh and next week we will have Dave Willis. Thank you so much guys for coming and making a fun afternoon for our men.

Happy Hour will be Thursday at 3pm with fruit 'n dip, fried liver tidbits, cheeseballs, crackers, wafers and the beverage of your choice. Mary Goodwin will be celebrating her 98th birthday Friday, February 2nd at 3pm with chocolate cake, chocolate frosting and ice cream in the nursing home dining room.

For our spiritual activities this week Father Tom Anderson lead Mass Wednesday, we watched the Congregational Church DVD on Thursday, Tulare Church DVD on Friday, and Pastor Marty Toepke Floyd lead the Sunday Worship Service. Next week Pastor Lorah Houser Jankord will serve communion during the Sunday Worship Service at 3:15pm. Following Church we will be holding a Super Bowl Party in the nursing home dining room hosted by the Tulare Oasis Chapter with snacks, beverages and the football game will be on. Go Team!!

Follow us on Facebook for updates and pictures of our exciting renovations to our new nursing home whirlpool room. We can't wait for the finished project!!
