

EASTERN STAR HOME AND STAR COURT SUITE NEWS

We have enjoyed the holidays but now as sad as it is the Christmas decorations must come down so our snowmen can go up.

On Monday with the help of awesome volunteers Ellen Kay Haigh, Jill Alkire and Pam Schmidt we were busy dismantling trees, and boxing decorations. We appreciate all their help.

Dave Willis started out our new year of men's table time on Tuesday followed by bingo with Marsha Hofer as the caller. Today our residents will be pampered with manicures while listening to relaxing music videos. The favorite evening activity of bingo will be tonight at 7:15pm. Thursday Mom & Max will be making homemade ice cream vanilla & strawberry. Seems to be one of our favorite things we reminisce about eating when we were younger. After eating ice cream we will be playing name that village piece putting away the "Christmas in the City Village Series" from Keith Goodwin. Friday we will be taking a arm chair trip to learn a little about Vermont. Saturday we will be playing Bingo at 3pm and will have movie night while watching "Izzy & Me". Pastor Tammy Toepke-Floyd will be leading the Sunday Worship Service at 3:15pm.

All of us at the Eastern Star Home would like to extend a thank you to all the birthday party guests that joined us for Paul Klebsch and Don Schade's birthday's last week. Birthday's are big deal here at the Eastern Star Home and you absolutely play a huge part in that by attending, thank you!!
