

EASTERN STAR HOME AND STAR COURT SUITE NEWS

It's sure looking like fall around here. The trees are turning such beautiful colors in our neighborhood and we have pumpkins and gourds decorating inside and out. Our Haunted Hallway is decorated but sad to say we will not have any trick or treaters go through it this year. Don't worry kids we are delivering Halloween candy bags to the school for the Redfield Elementary kids and to our local daycares. Our last sign of fall is our ice cream flavor of the month "Pumpkin Spice".

This week we played the "Name 5 Game" we came up with some pretty quick responses. Tuesday we will have bingo with our Activity Director Lisa Haigh as the caller and next week we will have Marsha Hofer back as our regular caller. Today is Janice Steinheuser's birthday. We will be reading the Redfield Press at 2:30pm and at 3pm we will be watching the Neil Dover Flora Bama Live Online. Susie Christman will be leading our Wednesday night of bingo. Thursday we will have rosary at 9:30am, Congregational Church Service online at 1:30pm and cooking class with the mom and daughter duo Lisa and Kayla Haigh at 3pm. Kathy Kohnen shared some of her bountiful beet harvest with us and we thought we would try several new recipes out on our residents. Follow us on our Facebook page and see how the recipes turned out.

Friday is our very dedicated beautician's birthday. Happy Birthday Susan Baxter. She makes everyone feel good here at the Eastern Star Home when they have their hair done. Thank you Susan for making our residents all look so nice. We will be watching a Red Skelton DVD Friday afternoon. Saturday afternoon we will have bingo with caller Lisa Haigh and watch a Hallmark Movie in the evening. Pastor Brian Wasmoen will be leading our Sunday Worship Service hopefully on the patio if the weather cooperates.

Have a great week and stay safe.
