

EASTERN STAR HOME AND STAR COURT SUITE NEWS

The Eastern Star Home is getting in the spirit of Hunting Season and Halloween. Decorations, decorations and more decorations fill the halls and sitting areas so we will be ready for the Annual Eastern Star Home Haunted Hallway on October 31st from 4:00pm-7:00pm. The residents are already talking about their costumes and preparing for the fun event.

The movie “Mama Mia” along with popcorn and pop was the Wednesday afternoon entertainment following the reading of the Redfield Press. The aroma of homemade donuts filled the facility Thursday with Max Stemper and Sheryl Kloss leading cooking class. We love it when they come. Susie Christman pampered the residents on Friday with polish during fancy finger time. She also called bingo and lead exercises on Saturday afternoon, the movie “The Saddle Club” was watched that evening. Ted Price lead the Sunday Worship Service followed by cookies, coffee and fellowship in the dining room. Janice Steinheuser celebrated her 80th Birthday with her family in the conference room Sunday, October 14th.

Van rides are a favorite activity to see what’s happening in Redfield and the surrounding area. Several residents took advantage of this on Monday with drivers Marsha Hofer and Lisa Haigh. Men’s table time guest this week was Russell Jessen, its fun to see where the conversation takes them. This afternoon after the reading of the Redfield Press the Frankfort Trio will share their musical talents with us. Come join us and check out our decorations.

Check out the Eastern Star Home's Facebook page at <https://www.facebook.com/EasternStarHomeRedfield/>