

EASTERN STAR HOME AND STAR COURT SUITE NEWS

Though several of us love to travel, it just seems we don't get to do it enough anymore. So when we get the opportunity to listen to someone else replay their trip we are all in. A huge thank you to our Assisted Living Aid Gwen Johnson for sharing the details of her trip to Japan last summer. We even sampled a little Japanese cuisine sushi, wasabi, ginger and soy sauce ramen noodles.

Our men's Table Time special guest last week was Roger Hansen along with several of his feather friends. Roger has been raising pigeons for several years and he brought in several different breeds to show the men. What an informative afternoon as he shared fun facts and stories. This weeks guest is Wayne Nelson.

Thursday the Gilbert Gals brought us a little "Octoberfest" with soft pretzels 'n cheese, sausages, tasty popcorn snack and homemade hot cocoa. As we enjoyed the refreshments we reminisced on fall harvest with horse pulled equipment in the good old days. My how things have changed since then. Friday while Lisa Haigh was fancying up the fingernails we listened to the TUC Church DVD. Joining us was the guest speaker of the church service Karen Stephenson, daughter of our resident Zelda Klebsch, it was nice having her with us. Our weekend manager Marsha Hofer called bingo and lead afternoon exercises. The Saturday Night movie was "Forrest Gump" and Pastor Marty Toepke Floyd lead the Sunday afternoon worship service. Next week Pastor Adrian Timmons will join us.

Monday we had warm foot baths, scented lotions, foot massages, pedicures and wine all in the comfort of our Eastern Star Home. A day many people look forward to. Tuesday we will have bingo and today we will join our voices for a video sing along. Wednesday afternoons we get a special treat when Mary O'Donnell comes for story time. After finishing the book about our hometown resident Ed Appel, she started a book written by Clayton Jennings about his life.

Come and celebrate Leroy Stapp's birthday a few days early on Friday, October 25th at 3pm in the nursing home dining room.

The ESH Annual Haunted Hallway will be held on Halloween Night from 4:00pm - 7:00pm. Everyone is welcome to check out our own spooks and goblins passing out the tricks or treats. Follow our Eastern Star Home Face Book page for upcoming pictures and details of our Halloween events.
