

EASTERN STAR HOME AND STAR COURT SUITE NEWS

The Eastern Star Home and Star Court Suites are busy with preparations for Halloween. We will have daycare kids come visit in the morning and the Redfield 1st Graders at 2:30pm. There will be a decorated pumpkin contest held during our Halloween Happy Hour with spooktacular appetizers at 3:00pm. Immediately following happy hour we will be hosting our “Haunted Hallway” again this year from 4:00pm – 7:00pm. The trick or treaters will start at the Chapel door getting their treats from the residents dressed in their costumes lining up the hallway. It is a fun event for all ages to enjoy.

We had a special visit Wednesday evening by the Redfield United Methodist POW kids. What a joyous delight having the kids sing their hearts out to our residents in each of our dining rooms. To add to their visit they brought us “Happy Autumn” cards along with a goody bag of candy corn and peanuts.

Toni Evans was our weekend manager who called bingo and lead exercises. The Saturday Movie Night was “Out of Africa” and Pastor Adrian Timmons lead the Sunday Church Service.

Monday we learned about Johnny Appleseed and Tuesday we celebrated Duane and Marie Mason’s Anniversary with cake and ice cream with toppings. Today we will read the Redfield Press, have an afternoon of favorite piano music with Paula Tollefson, story time about Clayton Jennings with Mary O’Donnell and play bingo in the evening with Marsha Hofer. Friday, November 1st we will be celebrating our newest resident Zelda Klebsch’s birthday at 3pm with angel food cake and strawberries. Debbie Bowar will call our Saturday Bingo and the Movie Night will be “Mall Cop”. We will have communion and worship with Pastor Brian Wasmoen Sunday at 3:15pm.

Follow us on Face book to see pictures of all our Halloween events. And don’t forget to mark our Vender Fair down on your calendar November 22, 2019 10am to 5pm.
