

EASTERN STAR HOME AND STAR COURT SUITE NEWS

We like to stay busy at the Eastern Star Home and this week stays true. Monday we had an afternoon of pampering by Lyn Flint, Lisa Haigh and Pam Schmidt with fancy feet and Tuesday is we played our favorite game of Bingo. Today we will read the Redfield Press at 2:30pm, enjoy lots of favorite songs by the Frankfort Trio at 3pm, listen to Mary O'Donnell for Story Time about Clayton Jennings at 4pm and play Thanksgiving Bingo with Marsha Hofer at 7:15pm.

Thursday we will start the morning with rosary at 9:30am led by Marvin Manning and Jerry Zens. Our Resident Council President Carole Baus will call the meeting to order at 11:30am for our nursing home residents. The department heads will share a little bit about their department and the residents can bring up any business they would like. After dinner we are looking forward to a visit from the Redfield School Skills Class at 1:45pm. We will be focusing on the letter "N" with a snack and activity. The Gilbert Gals will help us celebrate National Sandwich Day during Happy Hour at 3pm. You won't want to miss this. Our Family and Community Council Meeting will be held at 7pm in the Assisted Living Dining Room with our Mayor Jayme Akin as our guest speaker. Everyone is welcome to attend.

On Friday we will be holding our Annual Vendor Fair from 10am to 5pm in the Masonic Building with twenty six vendors attending. We will be serving lunch all day and will have a bake sale for your Thanksgiving needs. The Eastern Star Home will be hosting the monthly Redfield Area Ministerial Association meeting in appreciation for everything they do for our residents and staff here at our home. In the afternoon Bernice Solheim will be celebrating her birthday at 3pm with German Chocolate Cake and ice cream.

Saturday we will have bingo at 3pm and for the movie night we will be watching "The Carol Burnett Show" at 7:15pm. The Sunday Worship Service will be lead by Pastor Lorah Houser Jankord. After this filled week of activities we will be looking forward to Thanksgiving Week by sharing all things we are thankful for.
