

EASTERN STAR HOME AND STAR COURT SUITE NEWS

On Monday our activity director Lisa Haigh and volunteer Robin Buchholz gave Bingo a new twist turning it into Christmas Bingo with fun prizes donated by Dennis and Linda Smith. Bingo is a favorite but all the more fun when you play for Christmas prizes. Tuesday started the beginning of our Twelve Day's of Dress Up. We started with "Tinsel Toes Tuesday" wearing fun and crazy Christmas Socks. In the afternoon we celebrated Marvine Roeber's 96th birthday with her favorite banana crème pie purchased by her family from Leo's Good Food. Today is "Winter Wonderland Wednesday" we will wear white or sparkles to add to the holiday fun. Carol Bebo is treating everyone to angel food cake, strawberries and ice cream for her birthday following the music with Ron Parker at 2:45pm. The energy Ron puts into his music is contagious. Everyone will be tapping their toes, clapping their hands and receiving happiness in their hearts. On Thursday we will be dressing mismatched for the "Island of Misfit Toys" theme. We will be showing acts of kindness to others by bringing a canned food items for the Good Samaritan Food Pantry. Rosary will be in the chapel at 9:30am. In the afternoon we will be holding a Christmas Cookie Bake Off. We can't wait to sample all the contest entries. For "Flannel Friday" we will be in our comfy flannel attire. At 3pm we will be bringing our favorite Christmas decoration to Show 'n Tell in the nursing home dining room. It will be fun to reminisce the memories of the décor.

This weekend we will have "Candy Cane Saturday" dressing in red and white stripes. Our afternoon activity will be bingo with the Administrator Debbie Bowar and in the evening we will join together to watch a Christmas movie. On Sunday we will "Deck the Halls" by dressing to impress. At 2pm Danielle Nowell will be sharing her musical talent with us followed by the Sunday Worship Service lead by Pastor Brian Wasmoen at 3pm.

We all hope you are enjoying this holiday preparation time as we look forward to a very Merry Christmas. Check out our Facebook page for our latest happenings.
