

EASTERN STAR HOME AND STAR COURT SUITE NEWS

Tiki torches and grass skirts helped create a Tropical Paradise for our single residents at the Eastern Star Home and Star Court Suites Monday evening. The servers were dressed in tropical attire as they served a four course meal of caramelized pineapple, stone ground Tuscan loves, sweet Hawaiian chicken with island potatoes and creamy berry cupcakes. What a fun evening get away without leaving home.

We added a twist of fun to bingo this week with Mardi Gras bingo on Tuesday. We ate delicious king cake as we accumulated our beads with each bingo won. Today we have Catholic Mass with Father Tom Anderson at 9:30am, Redfield UMC Circle at 9:30am in Court C Dining Room, the reading of Redfield Press at 2:30pm, a fun afternoon of music with David Redfield starting at 3pm in our NH dining room and bingo night at 7:15pm.

Thursday we will have our creative sides come through with the help of Paula Ames of Tulare leading us in a paint 'n canvas. Stop in and check out our completed artwork creations. What better way to end our week then with Happy Hour at 3pm. A time a laughter, fun food and lots of great conversation. Saturday Marsha will call bingo and we will watch the movie "Leap Year". Sunday Worship will be lead by Pastor Tammy Toepke Floyd at 3:15pm in the chapel.

Mark your calendar for March 3rd to celebrate Don Bottum's birthday with cake and ice cream at 3pm in the dining room. Check out our Facebook page for the upcoming events on our March Activity Calendar.
