

EASTERN STAR HOME AND STAR COURT SUITE NEWS

This week we had a variety of activities hoping to entertain everyone. Monday we had the pleasure of hosting “Ginger the Rabbit”. Jadie Turner prepared a power point presentation about Ginger and made rabbit snacks for everyone to share. Check on our facebook page for pictures of her snacks.

Jadie’s mother Amy Turner is the Director of Nursing here at the Eastern Star Home and she presented for Jadie due to no visitors to our facility.

Have you ever wondered if you would celebrate your 105th Birthday? Well Esther Hughes in fact did celebrate her 105th Birthday with her Eastern Star Home family on Tuesday, May 19th with her favorite ice cream sundaes. Birthdays are a difficult time when family can’t be here to celebrate with them. But they are quite creative with making their presence know that they have not forgotten about their loved ones. Families send flowers, balloons, banners, pictures, send table favors, make phone calls, stop in for a window chats and facetime all over the United States. Thank you your efforts do not go unnoticed.

Today before our hymn sing we will have a sweet treat from the DQ. In memory of Alice Kellet’s birthday her family donated dilly bars to all the residents and staff. This evening Marsha Hofer will be the caller for night time bingo. We will get our fingers busy making crafts on Thursday. Friday we are celebrating Marsha Hofer’s birthday with a Turtle Cupcake Cooking Class with Debbie Bowar. We can’t wait to taste the masterpieces.

Saturday we will have afternoon bingo and our movie for the evening will be “The Greatest Showman”. For our Sunday Worship Service we will watch Pastor Marty Toepke Floyd the pastor from the Redfield United Methodist Church online. We are also enjoying Pastor Marty’s song of the day during our morning devotionals. Each day he picks a favorite song of his and so far we have known them well enough to sing along.

All of us here at the Eastern Star Home and Star Court Suites wish you a wonderful and safe Memorial Day Weekend.
