

EASTERN STAR HOME AND STAR COURT SUITE NEWS

Our Activity Director just got home from Alaska so today's article will be a combination of the last couple of weeks. First of all I would like to thank Marsha Hofer and everyone else that covered for me at work while I was gone and then I want to remind you of our FRIENDS AND FAMILY PICNIC here at the Eastern Star Home today at 5:30pm. We will have entertainment following our hamburgers, hotdogs, chips, beans, fruit and cookies supper. Bob Styles under the Stars will start at 6:30pm – 8:00pm outside the ESH Cottage. Everyone is invited to join us for a full evening of fun.

We had the honor of hosting the Spink County 4-H Fashion Revue on June 25th. There were eleven members that modeled selected and sewn outfits. Immediately after they joined us in the dining room and served us ice cream sundaes. A sweet treat to end our nice afternoon.

Ed Larson and his Red Suspender Band came from Watertown to bring us accordion music. Marie Mason celebrated her 92nd birthday on June 28th with her family and friends. The table games kings in the corner and dominos are a favorite for our residents. Several tables full of residents enjoyed the games along with our volunteer Pam Schmidt.

Mens Tuesday Table Time with Dave Willis is a monthly event the men look forward to. They never seem to run out of coffee or conversation. Next week Roger Crandell will be our table guest. Tom Pickles of Hitchcock came to share his music last Thursday as he sang our favorites with his guitar.

What we do when Sandy Woodring celebrates her 49th birthday on July 3rd? Well of course we shoot off fireworks and serve ice cream sundaes topped with peanuts. A great evening for not just Sandy but all her family and friends that attended.

We had front row seats to the Redfield Fourth of July Parade as they came through our circle drive. It included our resident Alice Dunn's great grand daughter Macie Luce the 2019 SD Jr. Snow Queen.

We had a broasted chicken dinner to celebrate and the movie Patriot was watched in the afternoon. It was nice having all the family and visitors come and go throughout the week. It made the Fourth of July all the more special.

Wheel of Fortune brings out the competitiveness as we use our minds to solve the puzzle. Paul Klebsch, Don Bottum, Eleanor Durfee, Ethelmae Anderson and Marilyn Newman were the proud winners. Pastor Lorah Houser Jankord lead this weeks Sunday Worship Service and Communion. Next week Pastor Aidrian Timmons will be here to lead our Sunday Worship.

90th Birthdays are kind of a big thing this week. Bud McNeely celebrated with his family a few days before his 90th birthday and with us here at the ESH on his birthday July 8th. Dorothy Thompson celebrated her 90th birthday during a family reunion with way over 50 people outside her apartment. They sure know how to throw a party. They had a tent, a smoker full of ribs, bean bag boards, tricycle races, a princess bouncy house and a lot of laughter from all ages. Join Roger Eschenbaum as he celebrates his birthday July 11th at 3pm with root beer floats.
