

EASTERN STAR HOME AND STAR COURT SUITE NEWS

Last week we took an arm chair trip to Europe with Nicole and Linda Siebrasse. They presented a power point of all their favorite highlights of their 110 day trip. It took Nicole 2 years to fully prepare the itinerary for this trip of a lifetime she took with her mother and brother. Her grandma Melva Olson lives in the Star Court Suites and was front and center to enjoy the presentation. This week we will cruise to Alaska with our activity director Lisa Haigh, her mother Sheryl Kloss and sister Lori Kohnen at 3pm on Thursday.

Several of the ladies spent some time in the quilting room looking over the finished projects the Quilting Ladies have done. After we picked out our favorites to enter at the South Dakota State Fair we sat and reminisced with Vi Hardie as we watched her quilt. We welcome anyone who would like to come quilt.

The Gilbert Gals commemorated the 50th anniversary of the landing on moon with a little trivia, moon parfaits, moon craters and tang to drink as we watched a very interesting dvd of the Apollo 11. So much information we hadn't thought about, but we all agreed we were not up for that kind of voyage.

Our bingo caller Marsha Hofer took a little vacation to visit her family so we changed things up a bit with Rachel Schmitt, Amy Turner and Lisa Haigh as the callers.

This weeks Sunday Worship Service was lead by Karin Gunderson and her son Ryan. They shared the ministry of Heavenly Harp through music, stories and the healing benefits of the harp bringing us peace and relaxation. She asked us to share the book "Encounters with Heaven-Stories of God's Surprising Presence" Step 1- put the following address into the top bar of your internet browser www.christianharpmusic.com Step 2-Fill in your email address and name Step 3-Click the button, "Send Now". We were so thankful Our Saviors Lutheran Church sponsored this amazing concert and allowed us to host it.

Rock Art sparked our creativity on Monday and Tuesday we celebrated Lyle and Joan Crooks anniversary with funfetti cake and maple nut ice cream. Our Men's Table Time guest was Roger Crandall and next week we will have Larry Eldeen and Al Felchle join us. Marsha Hofer is back and ready to start calling bingo again Tuesday afternoon, Wednesday night and Saturday afternoon. Welcome back Marsha – BINGO!!

Wednesday morning we will have rosary at 9:30am in our chapel. This afternoon following the reading of the Redfield Press we will have our guest pianist Paula Tollefson of Hitchcock play for our game of SINGO. We will have happy hour Friday at 3pm, a favorite time for our residents. You never know what the appetizers will be.

Saturday, July 27th we will hold our Annual Rummage Sale in our west garage from 9am – 4pm. All proceeds from the free will donations will go towards the mechanical lift fund for the nursing home. Hope to see you there.
