

Eastern Star Home & Star Court Suites News for September 19th

The Eastern Star Home and Star Court Suites enjoyed the music performed by Dale Fiedler on Wednesday afternoon. So many of the residents wanted to get up and dance but instead reminisced of the good ole days when they still could.

Rosary is held in our chapel every 1st, 2nd & 3rd Thursday of the month at 9:30 am with the assistance of Marvin Manning and Jerry Zens. We appreciate them for taking the time to bring this service to our residents. Thank you to the individuals that video the worship services we watch weekly, the Congregational Church DVD on Thursday's at 1:30pm and the Tulare United Church DVD on Friday's at 1:30 pm. Pastor Brian Wasmoen lead our Sunday afternoon Church Service in our Chapel this week and next Sunday Pastor Tammy Toepke Floyd will lead the worship service.

Our activity "What's New at the Grocery Store?" was quite entertaining with Mom & Max. They took several different items and created tasty and interesting goodies.

The Quilt Display at the Redfield Depot was where we headed on Friday, several residents and staff enjoyed the many beautiful quilts and their stories.

This Tuesday we had Jerry Hansen join our men Tuesday Table Time and next week we will have Marlin Flint. The men certainly look forward this time. Today after reading the Redfield Press we will have music from the Frankfort Trio, they always play our old time favorites and bring lots of happiness.

Come join us on Saturday at 3 pm we will be celebrating Boyden Frerick's birthday with chocolate poke cake in the nursing home dining room. Check out our facebook page for upcoming events and stop in for a visit.
